Dear Mr. Palliser:

My client, the El Paso County Sheriff's Office in Colorado Springs, Colorado, U.S.A., received your letter of 11 December 2012 (copy enclosed). Through these several pages, you appear to be attempting to get your client's arrest warrants canceled. Your client indeed has two arrest warrants in El Paso County, Colorado: 97DR3393 (contempt of court) and 98CR215 (criminal extortion). The proper entity through which to request cancellation of these warrants, however, is the District Attorney's Office of the Fourth Judicial District, which is headquartered in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Sincerely,

Charles C. Greenlee
