Yes.

We have been dealing with some issues that our mutual "friends" have created for us. Those should be resolved in the next few days. We should setup a call with all of us somehow. I am not too concerned about the methodolgy. Do you use SKYPE? We can setup a call there which is about 99% secure, based upon the people that I know who know what is and is not etc.

Thanks for the update. I will speak with him and let you know the results as well as I can. I appreciate your sentiments and agree!

We'll speak soon.

Hello Sam,

I spoke to Joe today. We both have a pretty good understanding of where we are and need to do some planning. Unfortunately, we got cut off before we could complete the call although there was much understanding accomplished, and when I attempted to call him back a number of times, I received his full voice mail box. I could not get him back.

Please speak with him about what we discussed in the mean time and we will talk again when Joes phone is available. Things are now much more clear and I can assure you that I will work with you to everyone's best interest. I cannot stress enough, however, we must be carefull to make sure everyone is safe.

Sarah

Sorry about the miscommunication. I did not know about the call. Let's try and reschedule. I will contact Joe today and keep you posted via email.

Hello Sam,

After Joe and I talked we scheduled a phone conference for last Saturday (your Friday) with my attorney included and I thought you would be a part of this as well. He did not answer his phone at the appointed time (got his full voice mail message multiple times) and apparently did not let you know about the appointment. I think it wise to try again with everyone confirmed on board. Do you want me to contact Joe and try to set this up again or do you want to arrange the call? I have many questions that are more appropriately asked on a secure line as to how you want to proceed.
